Big changes afoot

Parking banned on part of Campbell ave.

THERE'LL be some changes made along Campbell avenue next week, city councilmen heard Monday night, and some business owners and residents may be a little upset.

Citing safety factors as the number one concern Engineering Manager Bill Helms reported revised plans call for taking parking off of Campbell ave., from Third st. west to Winchester blvd. and, on the east end of the loop street development, prohibiting left turns onto Poplar st.

After a long and spirited discussion Monday the Council opted to go along with the recommendations but directed staff to get out flyers to affected residents so they'll be aware of the change, "before they can read about it in the local paper."

The "no parking" zone along Campbell avenue will affect several small businesses on the south side of Campbell ave. near Winchester. It's not expected to place a hardship on the Bank of America however, since that banking firm has acquired land adjacent to the present lot to accommodate patrons.

On the east side, several small businesses and medical and dental offices on Poplar are expected to be affected by the no turn decree, but the large nearby medical complex will still have their turning lane intact.

WITH THE CHANGE in plans for the street adjacent, Page ave. is expected to receive the lion's share of left turn traffic. Left turns will also be allowed on Foote street.

Main reason for the changes on the east end, one staffer reports, is the narrowness of the existing Los Gatos Creek bridge crossing. "We'd set up a head-on situation if we had a left turn on Popular," he explained.

On the west "no parking" end, the new design will straighten out the sharp jog in traffic on Campbell avenue and will give a better left turn stacking lane.

The changes in street striping and signs are due to begin next week.

City won't save fire station

THE CENTRAL avenue fire station will be converted to 12 off-street parking spaces if and when its no longer needed at that location, city councilmen decided Monday night.

By a 4-1 vote, with Mayor Ralph Doetsch strongly opposed, the Council opted to sell the land housing the station to the downtown parking district for an estimated $22,000 (land value only).

While two city commissions and the Citizens Goals Committee had urged the council to save that building for other uses, the Council majority wasn't convinced.

"I respect the recommendations of the commissions and the committee," Councilman Rusty Hammer explained, "but this is not a recommendation I concur with."

Among arguments for saving the building was its historical significance as the first City Hall. In fact, the state historical landmarks commission concurred with that view naming the building a point of historic interest early this year.

"There comes a point when past history must give way to future and present needs," declared Councilman Norm Paul. "And the fire station is a perfect example of that."

City staff was directed to draft an agreement between the city and property owners in that one block downtown area for the city's continued use of the building as a fire station.

After being sold to the district, the city is expected to lease that property until the fire station is demolished and the local engine company transferred to another location. But that's not going to happen in the future. Best guesstimates Monday night were that action will be at least four or five years in the future. Appearing to support the idea of saving the station Monday night were several individuals, including Jeanette Watson, chairman of the Civic Improvement Commission. "I'm appearing as a taxpayer tonight," she told the council, "not as chairman."

After citing the building's historical significance to the city she declared, "That building belongs to all the residents of the city of Campbell." Perhaps we should ask the people whether we should preserve the fire station or have 18 parking spaces, she added. (If the building was retained at the site an additional six spaces would be required to serve it). Also speaking in favor of saving the station were Barbara Conant, CIC commissioner and Margaret Fraker, a member of the city parks and recreation commission. Mrs. Conant read a statement by fellow commissioner Brent Evans, which the CIC adopted earlier as representing their feelings. "People need food, water, and shelter, and they need a heritage . . . Reminders of our past are needed. Once taken away they cannot be replaced, they can only be missed."

Paul countered this argument. The councilman said he feels the city has made "some significant steps" in preserving local heritage. A case in point, he said, was the city museum now housed in the library basement.

"If that station could be moved to a park, for instance, "he added, I would be the first to approve."

The knotty problem for Hammer and for Councilman Bill Podgorsek Monday night was the cost for keeping that building.

"There would be a minimum first year cost of $48,000," Hammer declared. While agreeing that the cost impact to the parking district would be minimal (a half cent difference in assessments). "You've completely ignored the cost to the citizens." The city's assessment for that land, if not included in the parking district, would be $20,000 (although this wouldn't be cash outlay since the city has other land already earmarked for the district on that block).

Renovation would cost between $10,000 and $18,000 depending on whether or not the building was used for public assembly. (Public use degrees earthquake proofing the building) and yearly maintenance costs for janitorial and gardening services was tagged at $10,000 by the building department.

Doetsch countered that if the city acquired a similar building today, "it would cost 14 times as much." And as for the initial cost, "why, we've paid out more money than this would cost just to put in lavatories (at the park)." Hammer later countered that it wasn't just the initial expense he was opposed to, but the ongoing yearly maintenance costs. "And I don't think that we're in any way going to destroy the historical heritage of this community," Hammer added.

That was no print

Out of the mouths of 8 year olds

THERE WAS A lot of excitement in Campbell last week as camera crews, complete with large cranes, descended on the city to film a series of commercials.

Their target was a Herfy's fast food restaurant on Campbell ave., near San Tomas Aquino road and among local youngsters hired for the filming was Forest Hill fourth grader Tracy Poe. The 8-year-old daughter of Bill and Carol Poe really "stopped the show" cold at one point.

THE COMMERCIAL series,to be aired nationally starting Nov. 1, includes "Uncle Arnold" and a large family descending on the restaurant en-masse. For the first scene Arnold (a character actor) and Tracy sweep into Herfy's where the youngster gives her order. Tracy ad libbed a bit.

With cameras rolling she marched up to the Counter and declared, "I'll have a Big Mac."

"Cut!"

TWO HOPEFULS SET FOR INTERVIEW

After a 15 minute juggling of calendars session Monday night Campbell city councilmen came up with a date for reinterviewing the two finalists for the vacant post on the Planning Commission.

Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. has been set for the five member Council to interview George Kasolas and George Vierhus.

At last week's public interview session the Council split 2-2 on naming a new commissioner. Mayor Ralph Doetsch was absent.

We hear you

The "We Hear You" column is designed for comments, kudos and criticisms from readers. Just call 378-9136 to sound off.

In your article about changing from carrier boys (girls) to mail delivery you made a reference about the carriers having to battle rain and snow and barking dogs to get the paper delivered. Those are the same things the mail carriers have to battle. So what's the difference?

Keep Record Straight

Editor's note: They're bigger and get more money.

Just a quick comment on the jet airplane problem at the park. Hasn't anyone thought of having a scrap dealer cut it up and haul it away?

M. Ogden

You identified the jet at the park as a F-85 Fairchild. It's actually a t-33 Lockheed jet trainer.

Ground Spotter

Editor's note: Sorry. But when you've seen one jet you've seen them all.

One of the dumbest signs I've ever seen was just put up on Virginia ave. (at Bucknall road). One of those signs is for a dead end street. Who's idea was it?

Unhappy Driver

Editor's note: According to Keith Manley, asst. civil engineer, traffic studies were made of that intersection upon the request of numerous residents of the area. And results showed that area met state criteria for installing a four-way stop sign. Also, says Manley, with driveways leading into the street from that "dead end" street if there was no stop sign on the east side of the intersection it could be disasterous.

I got the paper and there's quite an improvement . . . in the front page and in the delivery.

Likes Change

I, for one don't like the new paper. It's not as handy to read and I don't think there's as much news in it.

Put It Back

When you first started putting out that little paper (the tab size) several years ago I didn't like it. And I never did get to like it either. Anyway, I'm glad you're looking like a real newspaper again.

Old Time Reader

It's getting so I'm afraid to try and cross the streets in Campbell. Nobody will stop for you. Not even when you're in the crosswalk. I thought it was against the law to zoom right past people without stopping? I

McCue takes new city post

IF EXPERIENCE counts, Campbell's new housing and community development coordinator will have a leg up on negotiating the complicated federal grantsmanship course.

Thomas McCue, appointed last week from dozens of applicants for the $1,251 a month post, has plenty of experience including a position in which he reviewed HCD application grants from other cities.

The 26-year-old San Francisco man, who holds a BA in community studies from the University of California at Santa Cruz and a MA in urban planning from New York's Hunter College, will get busy later this month making sure he keeps his job.

First order of business is to prepare project applications for HCD funds. "We can't guarantee the job for more than a year," Administrative Assistant Kevin Duggan explained last week, "but if our program is funded it (the job) could go on three or four years or even more."

McCue's background includes work in housing and planning (for the All People's Coalition), a neighborhood stability project (at New York's Urban Analysis Center), and assistant to the chairman, department of urban affairs, Hunter College.

TOP CHOICE from a large field of contenders, Ted Rogers takes over his new post with the Campbell Chamber of Commerce next week. His background includes heavy emphasis on fund-raising, office organization and initiating community programs.

Ted Rogers named

New exec has made a million

CAMPBELL'S NEW Chamber executive collects coins, stamps, is proficient in macrame and helped raise over $1 million in donations in his former position as a high level staffer for the Boy Scouts of America.

Theodore (Ted) Rogers, 60, is due to take over his duties here Monday and is busy looking around for housing for himself and his wife, Louise.

Picked by the selections committee, from over 150 applicants, Rogers was appointed Chamber executive vice president at a luncheon meeting of the Board of Directors at Sebastian's last Wednesday.

HIS EDUCATIONAL background includes a BA in business administration from the University of Puget Sound, and study at Los Angeles City College. He formerly resided in Glendale.

For eight years he served in the U.S. Air Force, leaving in 1950 with a rank of Lt. Colonel and for the past 26 years he's been employed by the scouting organization. Assigned to several areas throughout the country, Rogers has initiated sustaining membership drives, secured foundation grants, installed new accounting procedures, developed direct mail campaigns and raised $250,000 in special events plus establish a $1.3 million trust fund with a deferred trust of $450,000 in his last position; president of of the Verdugo Hills Boy Scout Council in southern California.

AND HE'S A JOINER. His memberships include Kiwanis, Rotary, Community Council, Goodwill Industries executive board, Sister Cities Council, junior college instructor, church board of trustees and a Sunday school teacher and the Sister Cities Council.

The main reason for seeking the Chamber position, Rogers related, was that he hoped to be able to move closer to his family. Father of three sons, and grandfather of four, Rogers will be getting some help from his son Ross in San Jose as he makes his move to Campbell.

Council study session

Goals members feel they were given 'busy work'

GETTING PEOPLE isn't the problem for city study groups; it's keeping them.

Councilman Rusty Hammer made this observation at a recent study session with members of the 1976 Citizens Goals Committee.

During the two hour-long discussion over the 31 specific recommendations of that group, just a few members were in attendance. But, of those who were, several very pointedly told city officials of their disappointment over the operation of the year-long study project.

Cited during the evening were criticism of "busy work" given the advisory group. As an example, Anita Campos told of three separate sessions in her subcommittee devoted to looking into the issue of establishing a community school in Campbell. However, during one session she says she learned from school representatives that this project was already in the planning stages.

"It seems like the work of the goals committee was just an exercise in futility," Planning Commissioner Peggy Pack said on one point. Her feelings were echoed by Barbara Conant, a member of the Civic Improvement Commission, who also served on the goals committee.

TWO YEARS earlier a similar committee came up with several new projects, including the paramedic service. But this year's group feels there wasn't much new ground to cover. One reason? Too many "directed" tasks from the City Council.

According to Goals Committee Chairman Dave Jury, also a CIC member, many individuals felt they were given busy work. And the one big thing that "really turned off some people," Jury added, was that some issues given to them to study had already been settled.

And others met with opposition from the City Council. Such as the committee's number one recommendation; that an on-going committee be formed to develop a master plan for a downtown mall to go along with the off-street parking district.

Councilman Norm Paul said that night he feels the word "mall" in the recommendation might be misleading. At present any refurbishing would not take traffic completely off Campbell ave.

Hammer said he was not in favor of the recommendation earlier because, "I was not about to (set up a committee) until the property owners were willing to do something too" (In this case, agrees to the parking district).

OTHER COMMITTEE recommendations and their disposition include;

- That the fire station be relocated within three years and that the Central avenue station be saved for future public uses. (The latter issue was to be decided by the Council Monday night).
- Continued development of Los Gatos Creek and John Morgan Park (funding is being sought for these and the city already earmarked some housing and community development funds for the creekside park).
- Development of a housing rehabilitation program. (Should be in progress soon with the new HCD coordinator named last week).
- A group of specific recommendations such as appointing rather than electing the City Treasurer, increasing councilmen's pay from $150 to $200 monthly and that a spending limit on city candidates be imposed. Other suggestions from the governmental task force were to keep the status quo as far as an elected mayor, expanding the number of council seats and no limitation on terms for elected officials. (Councilmen said last week they feel the voters should decide on these issues, not the City Council who is directly affected).
- Placing reflective markers on the center line and along divider of major arteries in the City. (This was the lone new idea to come out of the group and is under study.)
- Investigation of the pilot child care program (underway).
- Financial support of the West Valley Progressive Senior Center (done).
- Continued operation of the Senior Citizen Nutrition and Service Program in cooperation with the county (funded through 6-31-77).
- Converting the two CETA positions in the Community Services office with permanent city-paid positions, if necessary (That federal funding has been continued to July, 1977).

LOOKING OVER specifics for disposing of an obsolete training jet last week were Edith Morley, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, and Administrative Assistant Charlene Case.

(Photography by Gordon Lew)

Jet is city's problem

THE U.S. AIR FORCE does not want their jet trainer back although they didn't put it quite that bluntly. Instead the three page response to the city's request that it be returned said; "The U.S. Air Force does not wish to exercise the option of retaining title to the above-mentioned donated aircraft."

Recently city parks and recreation commissioners, concerned over staff reports of a possible safety hazard with the training jet-turned play equipment at Campbell Park, suggested the aircraft be returned. Also under discussion before the Air Force was contacted, was the mounting cost for maintenance. City staffers have cited recent cases of injury to children from the sharp metal edges on the plane.

BUT IT ISN'T simply a matter of turning over title to the city either, as far as the military is concerned. According to the letter sent from the aircraft storage and disposition center in Arizona, the plane must be completely demilitarized before disposal. And in Air Force terms that means, "total destruction," in an approved manner of course.

When commissioners meet tonight at 8 p.m. one of the items under discussion will be how to dispose of the jet, now that the original owner doesn't want it back.

In an accompanying diagram and instruction sheet the Air Force laid down specific rules for disposing of former military aircraft. The wing spar must be completely severed, the horizontal and vertical stabilizers must be mutilated and the fuselage must be completely severed "at the most critical point between the wing and tail assembly."

REASON FOR the special handling according to the Air Force, is "to prevent the aircraft from even becoming operational." And as the donee, Campbell is obligated to insure these stipulations are carried out. In fact, the Mayor or City Manager must sign an attached demilitarization certificate to be returned to Arizona, complete with before and after photos of the aircraft.

Does anyone want a mutilated jet?

Campbell ave. will give sticky feet this week

MOTORISTS WERE again warned to avoid Campbell ave. if possible as paving work is completed.

This week several side streets will be closed off, including Railway ave. and the Orchard City drive crossings at Central, First, Second and Third street while the fresh pavement is being worked.

Work was begun this week on South First street, between Orchard City drive and Rincon avenue. New curbs, gutters, sidewalks, pavement and street lights are being installed.

And Campbell will be coming up with its first one way streets this week.

As soon as Railway avenue, between Campbell avenue and Orchard City drive, is completed, it will be open to north bound traffic only.

THE OTHER LEG of the south loop street, between Third street and Orchard City drive, will be southbound only.

Traffic island installations are due to begin this Monday, Oct. 18.

Last week major work on the new Southern Pacific crossing was completed. Total estimated cost for the signals, gates, planking, rails and installation is $120,000 with the city picking up about $65,000. The railroad is paying the balance.

Things are moving at Castro center

IF YOU NEED a stop sign at your corner or want to make your opinion heard on state and national issues, the second annual "Action Day" can provide some answers.

Sponsored by the Castro Community Center, 4600 Student lane, the day-long event begins at 8:30 a.m. this Saturday, Oct. 16. Community concerns are discussed and resource people will assist in helping individuals cut through the bureaucratic maze to find some solutions. Among those joining in group discussions this year are Congressman Norman Mineta, State Senator Jerry Smith and Assemblyman John Vasconcellos.

Campbellite Myron Alexander, a county planning commissioner, will also be there.

Fee for the event is $1.50 and includes lunch. For more information call the center at 379-3620.

PROP. 13 "DESERVES A NO"
Editor:

I wonder how many California voters are aware that the California State Chamber of Commerce, the Executive Board of California Taxpayers Association, the California Farm Bureau, and the State Superintendent of Public Schools, Dr. Wilson Riles, are among the many state leaders and organizations that oppose Proposition 13?

Tax analyst for the California State Chamber of Commerce, James Kennedy, writes: "In voting unanimously to oppose (Prop. 13) . . . the Board of Directors of the Chamber noted that the proposal could lead to reduced state General Fund revenues which would have to be made up by the taxpayers . . . (Though) local governments would receive a minute share of the pari-mutuel pool, the establishment of greyhound tracks could bring net increase costs upon local governments for services such as . . . law enforcement.

While the initiative proposes to channel (proponents estimate $75 million) to 13 charitable causes a Chamber report indicated that little money would actually end up in the hands of the intended charities. This is because the initiative grants first call on the funds to pay for the city and county licenses, for costs of legal enforcement . . . for administrative expenses of a "Greyhound Racing Commission," as well as to pay for administration of the 13 . . . charitable funds."

These representatives of tax-orientated groups make it clear that Prop. 13 is a bad deal for the California taxpayer. Leading legal and law enforcement officials too numerous to mention, but including Supervisor Quintin Kopp and District Attorney Joseph Freitas of San Francisco, make it clear who benefits from Prop. 13.

Los Angeles City Attorney Burt Pines warns, "There is nothing in Prop. 13 to prohibit dog-racing licenses going to convicted felons." Los Angeles District Attorney John Van de Kamp tells us, "Prop. 13 proposes to create a gambling monopoly in California which will be controlled by George Hardie (2ho wrote Prop. 13) and his invisible friends."

The State Peace Officers' Association and the County Sheriffs' Association have announced their opposition to Prop. 13, and San Francisco District Attorney Joseph Freitas warns us that Prop. 13 is, "an open invitation for organized crime."

With such information, Prop. 13 obviously deserves a NO vote from every California voter.

OPEN LETTER TO SUPERINTENDENT JIM HARDY AND THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF WEST VALLEY COLLEGE
Gentlemen:

Mr. James Hardy, Superintendent of the West Valley Community College district on September 23, made this remark; "If anything, I would recommend the district seek funds to instigate condemnation proceedings to purchase that private property between the district boundary on that side of the campus and San Marcos Road."

This may have been a whimsical aside by Mr. Hardy, who, incidentally, makes almost, if not more, salary than the Governor of California (for which he should be embarassed). In view of the fact that a local taxpayers and environmental group has made so much noise about completion of the stadium to the tune of one half million dollars, (not to mention the environmental objections and disapproval from a total cross section of Saratoga residents), now Mr. Hardy would propose expenditure of approximately $3.5 million dollars so that he can complete the spending of this half million. Fiscally, it doesn't seem sound and that statement is not whimsical! Dollars are peanuts to the Board.

The West Valley College District Report (published to all residents) shows very plainly a picture of a football stadium on the Mission campus. Mr. Hardy said that he asked the architect to show it only to see if it would fit on the site. Why?

The obvious nonchalance with which Mr. Hardy and the Board of Governors approach the spending of money indicates that there is not any responsibility toward lowering taxes or limiting spending dollars, but rather, building a large memorial to those seated now; maybe trying to best Judge Allen's monument?

The sooner the people of the WVCCD wake up and demand that their trustees represent THEM instead of the administration, the sooner they can get down to business and reorder our priorities to take a look at the administration of a good, educationally orientated college which does not stress lighted ski slopes and other nonsensical courses.

I would go further concerning $50,000 for dugouts on the baseball diamond — strictly major league — but I won't go on ad infinitum. Suffice it to say that I hope residents and taxpayers of the West Valley College District will take the time and effort to investigate what is being done with their dollars.

"MESSY" EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT
Editor:

California's messy — and getting messier! Our 1972 ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment is responsible.

The worst area is that of the family — which is fast disappearing as an integral, meaningful unit.

The husband is no longer the legal head, his home no longer necessarily the legal residence of the family. Since every organization must have a head to function effectively, the state is gradually taking over the job for the family.

Our new equal rights-spouse support law is subject to state established criteria geared primarily to getting husband and wife into paying jobs. Applicable equally to both beginning in 1977, they place the state in an unprecedented legal position to control the lifestyle of all married persons.

Meanwhile, millions of tax dollars are going into child-care centers to fill the breach in the home, with recommendations for government child care for all families, regardless of income. Thus, the state increasingly arrogates to itself the rights and responsibilities of parents — at taxpayers' expense.

Rockefeller money has earmarked California as the "equal rights" prototype for the nation. We Californians therefore have an awesome obligation. To protect American freedom from an ever-controlling government, we have no choice but to elect state legislators who will rescind our ill-advised ERA ratification.

This dangerous amendment, if passed, may provide "equality of rights under the law," but those rights remaining to us, albeit equal, will be of very little enduring value.

And California is where the whole mess is being engineered.

HOW TO KEEP UP CITIZEN INTEREST

If some serious soul-searching is going to be done over how the city can keep the interest of its citizen volunteers we have some suggestions.

The handling of the 1976 Citizen Goals Committee was, we feel, a classic example of what not to do to keep people involved.

• People need to feel they're doing something meaningful. Several issues that the committee spent much time on had already been decided or at least there had already been an indication from the council as to the direction the city should take.

• People need to feel they have something to offer. By loading the committees up with so many referrals, the council smothered any free thinking time. And the committee could conceivably come up with some interesting, needed and innovative suggestions.

• People need to feel listened to. By delaying last week's study session with the Committee for almost three months, committee members had to get the impression their input wasn't that vital . . . and certainly not that timely.

And finally,

• People don't like to feel used. And from comments, both public and private, of committee members that's just how many of the individuals who devoted dozens of hours to their city did feel.

Maybe the difference between the 1974 and 1976 Goals Committees sheds the greatest light on what makes people happy to serve, and continue to serve, their city.

• People need to feel they have impact. That their concerns and ideas are taken seriously and dealt with.

The 1974 Goals Committee had impact and its members had the satisfaction of seeing many of their suggestions implemented.

What will the 1976 committee say in two years?

Sources of Energy—No. 7 of a series

There's enough coal to generate electricity in the U.S. for centuries. But it's no simple energy solution here.

First, the good news.

The coal resources of the United States are large enough to satisfy all of the nation's energy needs for 200 years or more. Most of it is in the Western states, and fortunately much of it is low in sulfur content.

PG&E is actively investigating coal as a future fuel for power generation, and we have recently acquired substantial coal reserves in Utah.

Now, the bad news.

Reliance on coal resources for a major part of California's energy supply would create considerable logistical and environmental problems.

Unfortunately, there is no coal in commercial quantity in California, and the closest is almost 1,000 miles away. A 2,000 megawatt power plant would require shipments of 137 rail carloads of coal a day and burning it would produce 900 tons of ash a day—a substantial waste disposal problem.

Even if approval could be obtained from sister Western states to burn coal there and transmit the electricity to California, it would be more costly than locating the plants in California.

However, we shall continue to work on solving the problems and to develop our coal resources. Coal is one of the primary energy sources needed to help meet California's growing energy needs.

Other sources of energy.

There are 5 sources of energy which PG&E now uses for generating electricity.

Northern California has one of the nation's most extensive hydroelectric systems. It produces relatively inexpensive electricity. But nearly all economical and acceptable hydro sites have already been developed.

That's why natural gas and oil have become more prominent in our energy mix. Unfortunately, the costs of these fossil fuels have been skyrocketing. In just 5 years, the price of fuel oil has increased sixfold and the average price for natural gas has tripled, accounting for most of our rate increases.

We have the nation's only geothermal power development, largest in the world, and we are expanding it. However, we estimate it would supply only about 10 percent of our needs by 1985.

These limitations are reasons why our fifth primary source of energy—nuclear—is so important, and why we, like other utility systems here and abroad, have turned to uranium as power plant fuel. When our two nuclear units at Diablo Canyon go into operation, they can produce electricity for about 40 percent less than new oil-fired plants, despite higher initial construction costs.

Wind, solar, garbage, tides, ocean thermal differences, fusion and other developing technologies may someday help us supply your energy. Some may take years to prove out. Others may never become efficient or reliable enough to be competitive. But if and when they are ready, we'll be ready too. In the meantime, we must meet your demands for electricity.

Facing the problem together

The demand for electricity continues to grow, partly because population itself continues to grow. And the problem of meeting this growing demand is critical.

For our part, we will continue our urgent efforts to develop all available sources, to find new ways to use energy more efficiently, and to keep you provided with adequate energy and reliable service at the lowest possible cost. For your part, the effective way to help control the spiraling cost of energy is to use less of it. We encourage you to do so because the energy you use is too precious...and too costly...to waste.

Save energy-
you'll save money, too.

Wilderness center gets an extension. . . and a bawling out

THE DIRECTOR of a youth travel group occupying city-owned property, got a 30 day extension on the city's eviction notice Monday night plus a sharp tongue lashing from city officials.

Leon Berthiaume, founder and director of the Wilderness Center, told Councilmen the group could not make the Oct. 15 deadline for getting moved out of the old Scout Hall at the corner of Grant and Third streets.

Complaints from neighbors, plus the group's failure to live up to its lease agreement with the city, prompted the vacate order last month.

The director stepped to the podium Monday night to spell out problems the Center is facing in finding another location. (They had been "renting" the city building for $1 a year).

"I HOPE YOU realize that your appeal really doesn't bring a tear to the eye," Councilman Norm Paul retorted. He cited the months-long problem the city has had in trying to reach Berthiaume to iron out difficulties. Letters and calls were unanswered. "And you knew where to reach us," he added.

City Manager Bob Stephens reported that night that there have further incidents at the Center involving disputes with neighbors in that residential area. Including two recent incidents in which Campbell police were called to the scene.

Berthiaume countered that the incidents all came from one neighbor who has been opposed to the group since it settled there two years ago.

IN RESPONSE Stephens read off the names of two other families residing nearby who had also complained.

The 30 day extension brought with it two provisos from city officials.

"That there be no activity whatsoever at the center (such as planning trips) and that there be no harassing of the neighbors."

Lillian starts her new job tonight

SWORN IN as a member of the Civic Improvement Commission last Thursday was Lillian Moore, 45, a services program assistant for the county department of social services. Mrs. Moore, mother of five children ages 19-27, will attend her first commission meeting tonight, Oct. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chamber. Her interests include bridge, dancing, camping and she's been involved in many community activities including a former county commissioner on the Status of Women. Her professional duties include working with the county alcoholism, drug addiction and public health nursing programs. Her home is at 103 Salice way.

Home birth

Rebecca and family are doing fine

WHEN JUANITA CORDERO learned she was expecting her third child early this year she was determined to have her baby at home under the new childbirth method that involves the entire family. And produces an easier transition for the infant since delivery occurs in a quiet atmosphere under subdued lighting.

Last week Juanita posed with three week old Rebecca, born at home with her husband Don's help and with their two daughters, Marie 3½ and Angel, 2, in attendance. Also in attendance were two midwives, some friends, including one photographer friend who "got some fantastic movies," according to Juanita.

Her labor was short (2½ hours) and there were no complications. Don clamped and cut the cord after delivery and he, with the rapt attendance of Rebecca's two big sisters, gave the baby a warm bath minutes after birth.

"I would recommend home birth for anyone who has no complications," Juanita declared last week. She and Don got great support from family and friends and from one unexpected source; Dr. Gene Helsel at Kaiser Hospital.

"That morning he told me 'Everything's fine. Go home and have your baby'," Juanita related.

Council impasse on new commissioner

CITY COUNCILMEN deadlocked last week over appointment of a new planning commissioner so it will be up to the Mayor to cast the deciding vote.

With Mayor Ralph Doetsch absent,the 4 council members cast two votes for hopefuls George Vierhus and George Kasolas.

Five applicants appeared for the public interview session last Wednesday but one was disqualified because he resides outside the city limits. Not one to miss any opportunity, Councilman Bill Podgorsek called after the man as he left, "I'd like to see you talk to Art Kee (planning director) about some annexation petitions before you leave."

Officials posed a series of questions to applicants that night ranging from what the city's future should be to whether or not all would file the required statement of financial holdings. (Most candidates favored keeping a balanced community and all agreed to reveal their holdings).

Kasolas, a local attorney, is active in the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

VIERHUS, retired editor-publisher of the PRESS, is a free lance writer.

Before reaching an impasse on the applicants, councilmen held a spirited discussion on just how much of the selection process should be handled publicly.

Councilman Rusty Hammer said he felt using a secret ballot to vote for applicants defeats the purpose of new legislation which prompted the public interviews. He was joined in the vote to have voice votes on candidates by Councilman Norm Paul. That motion failed by a 2-2 vote.

Councilman Chamberlin cited possible hurt feelings of those not picked as one reason for preferring a secret ballot vote. The motion to case the ballots on slips of paper passed to the City Clerk passed by a vote of 3-1 with Hammer opposed.

Monday night under the "council discussion" part of the agenda, officials were to set a new date for interviewing the two finalists when all five could be present.

Big jump seen in building activity

ALTERATIONS and additions to commercial property made up the lion's share of September building activity in Campbell. Of the $775,000 in valuation for last month, commercial activity accounted for $667,000 of the total.

Campbell is $800,000 ahead of last year at this time with $5.8 million in valuation to date, compared to $5 million last year at this time.

Last month there were no permits issued for new buildings, residential, commercial or industrial, but six homeowners put in swimming pools, 12 homes had additions and three sign permits, totaling $2,300 were issued. Most of the home construction last month was reroofing.

Carl Swenson Co., Inc. accounted for the largest construction project last month, with the third floor addition at 700 W. Hamilton ave. valued at $559,000.

Entries sought

Local residents who would like to sell or display their hand made arts and crafts are invited to take part in the Cambrian Community Center, "Art in Action" day on Saturday, Nov. 6.

The annual fall festival will be held at Bohnett School, 2275 S. Bascom ave.

New wrinkle on back to school

Tedesco's doing homework for his new trustee post

By PAT SAFFORD

"PEOPLE EXPECT ME to be controversial and I'm not," declares Steve Tedesco, newest member of the Campbell Union High School District Board of Trustees.

Perhaps it's because he has the mustachioed looks and manner of a college student, which he is, and the intense personality of an in-house radical, which he isn't.

Last week after a two hour ordeal, which at one point prompted one trustee to seriously consider flipping a coin to break the 2-2 deadlock for the post, Tedesco became the youngest ever member of the high school board. The final vote for his appointment was 4-0. (Caralie Wagner was the other strong contender).

The 22-year-old San Jose state university graduate, now after his master's degree in urban planning, is a product of the local school system (Moorpark, Monroe and Del Mar) and has some criticism of his own experiences.

"I HAD FUN IN school," he explained, "but I didn't like it." The "fun" was high school sports and serving as president of the student body at Del Mar high school and the negative side was the classroom.

"I found I learned more things in my extracurricular activities," Tedesco says.

Still, looking back a few years, he's thankful for being forced to take his studies seriously. He kept his grade point average at 3.6 (4.0 is straight A's) "I did it so I could play baseball and hold office but I didn't enjoy it."

Not that he's advocating schools try to become entertainment centers for students. "We need more emphasis on turning out kids that can read and write better," Tedesco declares. He also advocates parents and teachers doing a little pushing.

"Just tell them 'you might hate me now but I guarantee you'll love me when you start going out to get a job.' " Competition in college is keen, he explains, and for those who aren't going on the basics are equally important.

MOST LOCAL observers think of Tedesco as a political figure. He ran twice before for the high school board garnering over 6,000 votes in his last race, and served as campaign chairman for Councilman Rusty Hammer during one of his local campaigns. But times have changed for the new trustee.

For the past year he's been working as a non-paid intern in the city's planning department. His task; working up information for a land use inventory study, and presently, making up a sign inventory including a list of all non-conforming signs.

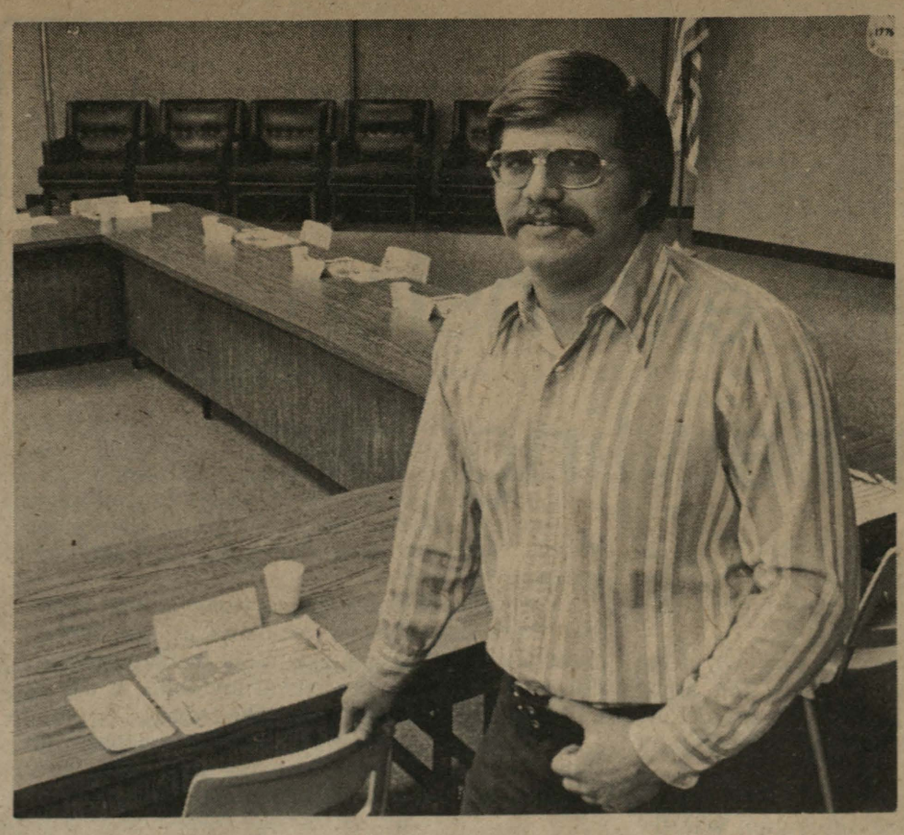
Tedesco considers this experience invaluable, not only in his future career plans (urban planning for a public agency) but in finding out how the other side, the staff, feels.

When is isn't studying, or at City Hall, Tedesco works at his father's Santa Clara meat company or helps out with a local PAL baseball team (he coached two years) or as head of District 12 Little League umpires. The latter job includes work on the field as well as off and Tedesco shared his secret for what makes a good umpire.

"You have to be in the right position and be decisive . . . and loud! Even if you're wrong, people won't know."

BUT THAT'S NOT the tact he plans for his new duties on the high school board. Tedesco says he'll take time to do his "homework" including district finances, policy and past board decisions and will visit local schools.

"I'll probably visit PTA's and meet with teachers at the schools," he says. "I also want to talk to students and see what their concerns are."



AS THE YOUNGEST member of the local high school board, and a product of one district high school, Steve Tedesco has an interesting problem in his new role: what to call the Superintendent. "I don't think I can call Dr. Montesano Nick," the 22-year-old commented. Last week Tedesco was appointed by the board to fill the post vacated by Vernon Rutlen, who resigned for business reasons last month. Tedesco's term is a short one; it's up in March but he's already announced he plans to seek re-election. And when voters go to the polls next year they won't find "incumbent" marked next to Tedesco's name. Unless an appointee has held the post for a year, that vote-getting label isn't included on the ballot. But that's fine with Tedesco. "I don't think an appointee should be called an incumbent," he says.

THE FONDU POT in Campbell has a new, moderately priced lunch menu — featuring homemade Tureen of soup & salad $2.00; Soup & Sandwich $3.00 (this steaming hot pot of soup is placed on a hot brazier at your table). Also, DURING THE MO. OF OCT. you'll receive a complimentary glass of excellent house wine w/this lunch combination. Of course, you may also order one of their Luncheon Fondues from $3-$5.75, but keep in mind, they have $2.00 sandwiches, i.e., The Beefeater (thinly sliced beef on sourdough br.); The Neptune (Seafood salad on toasted English Muffin coated w/melted Cheddar Cheese); The Alpine; The Saratoga; The Santa Cruz. EXCELLENT CUISINE!

Todays prices being what they are, luncheon is becoming more of a luxury everyday. SIRLOIN & BREW UNLIMITED decided to make luncheon a treat for everyone . . . not just executives on expense accounts. Most of their tempting items (Grilled Monterey Jack on Rye, Chuckburger, etc.) are only $2.19 . . . and remember, this incls. their fabulous salad bar, soup, & unlimited pitchers of beer or bottles of burgundy of chablis. Now that puts luncheon back in everybody's ball park.

After a hard working day, I drove to the ECHO on my way home & ordered a dinner to take out . . . Chef Ron Eller prepares some of the best Fried Chicken I've ever tasted — that combined with freshly cooked carrots & crisp French fries, & french bread was a true feast. Once in a while, it's nice to be able to dine at home where you can kick off your shoes, but still enjoy some fine cuisine. I recommend you try the ECHO soon.

A COMPLIMENTARY BUFFET DINNER is yours for the asking ON THURS., OCT. 14, at the 94th AERO SQUADRON — They'll be celebrating their "GRAND OPENING" of the new "Specialty DISCOTHEQUE" BUT YOU MUST CLIP THIS WRITE-UP & TAKE IT WITH YOU FOR ADMITTANCE TO THIS FREE GOURMET FEAST — 8:30 TIL 1:30 A.M. WITH BIG BAND SOUNDS OF THE 50'S, 60'S & 70'S. Presided over by Chad Jeffries Tues.-Sat. & Mike Love on Sun. & Mon. Free gifts & prizes incl. 94th AERO SQUADRON t-shirts — CLIP THIS WRITE-UP NOW & I'll see you on the 14th at the 94th AERO SQUADRON.

All night parking is available across the street from the LAUNDRY WORKS on N. San Pedro St., S.J. Remember this when you want to enjoy some of Chef Andy Lee's fine Early California cuisine — try the Shrimp Manzanillo. Remember Sun. brunch served on their lovely patio 10:30 - 2 p.m. . . . Do take advantage of this lovely weather in the flower laden atmosphere of the LAUNDRY WORKS' al dente dining.

The "Nine Dragon" dining room at CHEF CHU's officially opened last Sun. but diners have been testing it for the last few weeks & it's extremely spacious. The cuisine will remain the same NORTHERN CHINESE STYLE & the service w/still be personable & hospitable. Remember CHEF CHU serves cocktails, provides banquet facilities & larger dining space, plus additional parking in the rear.

Los Gatos's garden restaurant — THE GAZEBO — is simply charming. Master Chef Earl Geiss has added fantastic seafood entrees on their menu, incl. a "Catch of the Day." Remember they're open for lunch Mon.-Sat. until 3 p.m. & serving a "Blue Point Spec." — $2.95, $3.25, depending on the entree. Last Fri. it was Veal Birds w/Soup or Salad, rice, potatoes, cole slaw, veg. — only $3.25!

It's gab, grab, glad for Gem

Oct. 16-Oct. 22

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Because of your curious nature, Ari, you are often attracted to that which is bizarre. You are easy (well, maybe not exactly easy, but certainly not difficult!) to catch, but hard to keep. This week your threshold for boredom is exceedingly low. Hectic week ends with a holler.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): If you were a book, Taurus, you'd be The Whole Earth Catalogue. You have a natural, earthy and unselfconscious approach toward life in general and sex in particular. Lucky is the lover who lands you for a partner, Taurus. Lucky, and probably exhausted!

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You, Gem, have an insistent urge to communicate. At social gatherings, you're not above collaring a perfect stranger and expounding on your favorite topic. In fact, the more perfect the stranger, the more elaborate your elucidation. Partner/mate often takes a dim view of your antics. Busy week ends on key of G, for gab, grab and glad.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Restriction due to be lifted. Soft nights and glowing (camp?) fires highlighted, little crab. Week of surprises ends on a (marsh?) mellow note.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Contact old friend/lover this week, Leo. Talk, laugh, love and maybe even cry a little. Don't hold back honest emotion. Your strength lies in giving, dear heart. Week should end on a natural upper.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Loved one who attempts to solve giant jigsaw puzzle is ready to flip, for key piece is missing, and it's YOU. Only you can plug the hole, Virgo. Have a heart and do so. You will understand.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Look over your shoulder, Libra my love. Someone may be tracking you, and the last thing you need is to be observed without your knowledge. Lose this cat in a well-planned labyrinth. You're so terribly good at that sort of thing. Week ends with a sigh.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Emphasis shifts from the personal to the universal, Scorp, and for you this is a giant step forward. You want to fly. Fear not, pet, you'll get more than one opportunity. Week of choices comes down gently.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Brisk October stirs your senses and you contemplate dreamed of romantic coup. Check your wiring first, Saj, to be sure that your circuits aren't already overloaded.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Confusion and conflict tend to dominate first part of week, Cap. Hold that precious chalice of yours high and you'll manage to get through throngs of foes unscathed. Message clears.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Be generous with friend, Aquari. Forgive old hurts. Pardon. Reflect. Important message to you, dear heart, hidden in words to Leo. Read them carefully. You will comprehend.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Desire strong to return to the scene of happier days. You cannot go back, Pisces, so do not try. What seemed so grand in past can cause heartache now. Monuments crumble, so why survey the ruins? Believe in today . . . and of course, tomorrow.

TAKING A look at a new co-ed weight training class at Rolling Hills junior high school is Joe Stein, in charge of the program designed to offer equal educational opportunities to girls and boys. Through workshops, films and a self-assessment program this month, district teachers are learning the "do's and don'ts" of the new federal law. (Photography by Gordon Lew)

Title 9's on the scene

There's some big changes in the old P.E. program

CO-EDUCATION is taking on new meaning in schools throughout the country this year. And nowhere is the impact more apparent than in physical education classes.

In junior high P.E. classes in Campbell this year you'll see girls and boys playing baseball, softball and paddle tennis together and lining up at the starting blocks for the 100 yard dash.

Joe Stein, Title 9 officer for the Campbell elementary school district and P.E. Coordinator, explained some of the changes recently.

"The biggest impact is in integrated P.E. classes," Stein said. "This year classes can only be separated for contact sports."

ANOTHER CHANGE locally is that girls have an extra after school sport this year, but Stein is quick to add that the legal provision of the new law differ between school and after-school sports programs.

While all instruction, and most activity, is now offered in mixed classes during the day, the district's after-school program is still separated, with one exception. (Boys can sign up for gymnastics.)

Last year a questionaire was distributed to all sixth and seventh grade students and their rating of the "top six sports" led to setting up programs this year.

Girls ("who play a shorter season") have paddle tennis, volleyball, gymnastics, soccer, basketball and softball.

The boys opted for football, wrestling, softball and basketball.

"I was surprised they didn't pick track," Stein says of the boys. But the kids still may be hitting the old oval track trail this year since funds were set aside for one additional sport for both groups.

FAILURE TO COMPLY with the new federal law carries a heavy penalty (a cut-off of funds, for instance) so most districts are working on making the necessary changes.Stein feels the Campbell district is way ahead on that score. In fact, he receives many calls from other districts asking how Campbell is handling the new law.

"We were one of the first in the county to offer girls competitive sports," Stein explains, "and that's why the adjustment won't be too hard here."

WHILE THE LAW went into effect last July, all seventh and eighth grade schools still have a two year leeway for total compliance. And that's where Stein feels other districts might be missing the boat. Total compliance means making building modifications, if needed, to provide equal facilities; not the date a new program is begun.

"There are no more girls' and boys' P.E. teachers," he declares. Perhaps not under the law, but practically they're still separated at most schools since the P.E. teachers often have their offices in the shower rooms.

And the new law isn't limited to sports. It includes the entire education system for both teachers and students. From equal opportunity in hiring for administrative spots to no more "girls' and boys' lines" in front of the classroom in the morming.

BUT THE LAW DEALS with specifics and the real change, if there is to be one, must come in the attitudes of people.

"The change isn't easy for some," Stein admits. "We'll probably make some mistakes for awhile, but I feel our teachers are working hard to do a good job in compliance."

1906 JACKSON

In 1906 you could have picked up this two cylinder Jackson, complete with wooden spokes and gas carbide headlights, for $800. The hand-crank car boasted leather seats, a wood body and canvas top. There was no windshield but motorists didn't have to worry about flying rocks and insects since top speed was about 9 to 10 miles an hour. And you could get 7 to 8 miles per gallon of gas. Those were the days!

Barrigan wins but Campbell loses

JAVIER BARRIGAN romped to an individual first but it wasn't enough to lift Campbell past Westmont in West Valley Athletic League cross country action.

Barrigan finished first for Campbell clocked at 13:08, a new record on the 2.5 mile course at Campbell.

But Gerald McPeak finished a strong second for Westmont at 13:50 to help the Warriors post the 20-43 team win.

Campbell offers drop-in volleyball

THE CAMPBELL Community Services office is now offering a drop-in volleyball program every Wednesday evening from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the Campbell high school gym for those 18 years of age and older.

Games are both recreational and competitive. For more information call the Community Services office at 378-8141, ext. 252.

Arnold steps down as CCS commissioner

GENE ARNOLD, Commissioner of the Central Coast Section since July, 1970, has announced he will resign from that post effective Oct. 31, 1976.

Arnold, who has served California's youth for 40 years, will serve as an advisor to the CCS staff until a replacement is named. No immediate replacement is planned.

"No other assignment has given me as much satisfaction as that of CCS Commissioner," remarked Arnold.

Arnold moved to San Jose in the fall of 1936 with his wife, Marian. He was a coach at San Jose high school and helped to develop the skills of many outstanding athletes of the years, including Stanford All-Americans Chuck Taylor and Pete Kmetovic.

Warriors fall from first to WVAL middle

ONE WEEK THE Westmont Warriors were sitting on top of the West Valley Athletic League. The next week they were stuck in the middle.

One week the Westmont Warriors were sitting on top of the West Valley Athletic League celebrating a big win over defending league champion Los Gatos.

And the next week the Warriors suddenly found themselves in the middle of the pack trying to figure out where they went wrong in a 27-6 loss at the hands of the much improved Blackford Braves.

"We just suffered a complete breakdown," said a stunned Don Stagnaro, the Warriors' head coach. "We let down. To be very honest, I don't think the kids believed us when we told them that Blackford was a very good team."

If the Warriors didn't believe their coaches at the time, then they surely do by now following last week's humbling.

"You name it, everything went wrong," Stagnaro continued, noting that the Warriors had gone through a "terrible" week of practice. "We weren't prepared, I guess. They just out-prepared us completely."

"It looks like that's how it's going to be this year," the Warrior boss said, referring to the large number of upsets during the first two weeks of the WVAL season.

Westmont won't be able to lament last week's loss for very long, however. The Warriors must prepare for a critical contest with Camden Friday afternoon at Westmont. Game time is 3:30 p.m. Both teams bring 1-1 records into the tilt, needing victories to remain afloat in the WVAL title chase.

"I still think we have as good a shot as anyone to take the league," said Stagnaro. "I don't see anyone dominating the league."

ABOUT THE COUGARS, Stagnaro said, "Everytime we play them it's been close. I know we'll be prepared this time."

Last week Blackford stunned the Warriors by scoring twice in the opening minutes of the second quarter after a scoreless first period.

Mike Turnwall began the Brave blitz by motoring 94 yards for a touchdown. Later in the stanza quarterback Scott Conn completed a Brave march with a two yard romp into the endzone.

Westmont got back into the game momentarily when Eric Stark broke a simple dive play 60 yards for a touchdown behind key blocks thrown by Rick Alvear, Rocky Pena and Pat Riley.

But after that, the Warrior offense was held in check by a fired up Blackford defense.

The Braves went on score solo touchdowns in the third and fourth periods on short runs, one by Conn, to put the game out of reach.

"Blackford really wanted to win the game," praised Stagnaro. "Even if we had given our best effort we'd have been in for a real dog fight."

The only bright spot on the day for Westmont was the running of Stark, who carried the ball 12 times for 148 yards.

"He had an outstanding day," said his coach. "He made a lot of those yards on his own."

Quarterback Randy Scacutto completed six of 14 passes for 88 yards and was intercepted twice. Pena caught four passes for 60 yards.

Defensively, Stagnaro would only single out tackle Jim Pappa for playing a good game.

Campbell ends two feet away from tie

Time runs out on Bucs in battle with Camden

THERE ARE 48 minutes to every high school football game. But the Campbell Buccaneers could have used another five seconds in their game last Friday against the Camden Cougars.

When the final gun sounded the Bucs were only two feet away from a game-tying touchdown and scrambling to get one last play off.

"I felt we played good enough to win," lamented Campbell head coach Al Matthews. "We just had a couple of breakdowns that cost us the game."

One of those breakdowns was an 82-yard touchdown run by Camden reserve fullback Rick Slayton early in the fourth quarter that proved to be the decisive score.

"Every one of our kids must have had their hands on him but they let him get away," Matthews said.

Slayton, just a junior, carried the ball just six times for 106 yards in the Camden win.

Campbell came roaring back following Slayton's touchdown, which gave Camden a 19-7 lead, to tally a TD on a 12 yard pay-dirt pitch from Dan Trinidad to Steve Heidler.

Camden took the ensuing kick-off and drove to the Campbell 45-yard line before failing to convert a fourth and one situation with less than two minutes to go.

CAMPBELL MOVED quickly to the Camden 32 where Trinidad broke an option play 28 yards to the Cougar four, being caught from behind by safety Daryl Doll.

With only 35 seconds left and no time-outs remaining, Campbell tried a pair of running plays but pulled up two feet short of the end zone when time ran out.

"It was a frustrating game," said Matthews. "We played well enough to win."

Campbell drew first blood in the game on a three-yard touchdown run by Carlos Velasco in the first quarter followed by Dave Wagner's extra point kick.

But Camden bounced back in the second quarter on a pair of short TD romps by Chris Mesa to assume a 12-6 halftime lead.

While Matthews was pleased with his club's defense, he was extremely disappointed with Campbell's punting game.

"Our kicking game messed us up," Matthews remarked, noting Campbell punted for only a 20 yard average. "It kept putting us in a hole. Our kicking game has really been hurting us and giving our opponents opportunities to score."

A short Campbell punt set up Camden's second score of the day, giving the Cougars a first down at the Buccaneer 26.

Although Campbell ran well all day, Dave Burns in particular, the Bucs stalled five times inside the Camden 20 yard line.

ASIDE FROM the scoreboard, Campbell dominated every phase of the game. The Bucs rolled up 328 yards of total offense to Camden's 287 and chalked up 19 first downs (Camden had 16). Campbell gained 260 yards on the ground and 68 through the air.

The Bucs will try to even their West Valley Athletic League record Friday afternoon at Branham when they clash with the Bruins at 3:30 p.m.

"They're a very good football team," stated Matthews. "I'm impressed with their team speed, they execute real well and their defense is especially good."

"We have a lot of work cut out for us," the Buc boss added. "But we can beat them if we play good football and don't make any mistakes."

Chances many, touchdowns few for Del Mar gridders

THE OPPORTUNITIES for touchdowns were numerous last Friday afternoon for the Del Mar Dons against Prospect. The problem was, the touchdowns were few.

Del Mar had problems punching the football into the end zone and it cost the Dons their first loss of the young West Valley Athletic League season last week, 13-7, at the hands of Prospect.

The win was the second straight for the Panthers in league play and surprisingly Prospect sits in sole ownership of first place in the WVAL with a 2-0 mark.

Del Mar slipped to the middle of the pack with an 0-1-1- record in two league games and will get a break from WVAL competition this week.

The Dons, with a bye in the WVAL schedule, will meet Monta Vista Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Cupertino high school field.

"Monta Vista executes very well," said Don coach Jim Clifton. "They have a good, sound football team. They'll try to run right at you."

The Dons will be out this week to try to solve some offensive problems they've suffered the last two weeks.

"The defense has been sound, but the offense just can't control the ball," said Clifton. "Our offense is struggling again, just like last year."

"We had a couple of chances to win against Prospect even though we didn't play well," he added. "But we didn't deserve to win."

DEL MAR HIT the scoreboard early in the game when Bob Onetto blasted over from the four in the first period. Yogi Taylor kicked the extra point to make it 7-0.

Quarterback Tom Harris had flipped a 38-yard pass to Onetto to take the ball to the seven and set up the touchdown.

But Prospect scored before the end of the first to tie it at 7-7 and went ahead for good at 13-7 in the second period.

Del Mar had its chances in the third but couldn't cash in.

The Dons faced a fourth and an inch situation at the Panther 21 in the third but fumbled on the try for the first down.

In the fourth period Del Mar drove to the seven with a first and goal situation. The Dons gained three yards on the first two plays but lost 19 on the next two and had to turn over the football.

Del Mar also blocked a punt in the third period but after the ball passed the line of scrimmage it was touched by a Don and Prospect recovered for a first down.

Del Mar gained just 178 yards in the game, getting 112 of that on the ground.

Onetto sparked the ground game with 59 yards on 13 carries. "It was one of his better games," said Clifton.

Dave Hernandez carried six times for 14 yards and Clifton praised the back for his "very hard running."

Harris was four for 10 for 66 yards through the air, hitting Taylor twice for 16 yards, George Rodriguez once for 12 and Onetto once for 38.

John Head and David Garcia each picked off passes for the Dons defensively and Blake Fearnside and Larry Oreglia led Don tacklers.

Clifton also singled out Pete Angelidakis and Ernie Watkins for fine defensive efforts.

The Dons held Prospect to just 180 total yards, just 30 on the ground.

FORMER LELAND high school football star Jeff Lyall will be in the starting line-up for Long Beach State University Saturday when the 49ers visit Spartan Stadium to tackle San Jose State University.

Lyall is a 6'1" and 220 pound junior defensive tackle for Long Beach, the Niners coming to San Jose fresh off a 41-10 win over Drake.

Few surprises in point wrap-ups at Speedway

THERE WERE FEW surprises when the Super Modifieds and Stock Cars finished up their point season at the San Jose Speedway. The trio that led in each of the three divisions for most of year, wrapped up their titles.

Tom Haylett put the clincher on his Super Modified title. Haylett ended the year with 1,024 points for the title. Chuck Christian was second at 953 with Jack Epperson of Milpitas a close third at 935.

Harry Goularte rolled to the Stock Car title with 1,120 points, sitting far ahead of second place Ray Morgan at 1,031.

Ken Naber wrapped up his championship in the Figure 8 standings, finishing the year with 946 points. Lloyd Keldsen jr. was second at 864 with Ken Nott third at 826.

Haylett, Christian and Epperson were the top three finishers in Super Modified action at the San Jose oval with Mark McCarthy fourth at 766, Jay Smith fifth at 756, Mark Sargeant sixth at 723, Art McCarthy seventh at 712, Jerry Robertson and Dan Haulot tied for eighth at 578 and Howard Kaeding of Campbell 10th at 576.

Christian finished the year as the California Super Modified champion with Epperson second, Haylett third and Sargent fourth.

Goularte held off a late charge by Morgan to cop the Stock title. Jerry DeLoach finished third at 996 followed by Pat Norris at 890, Nott 885, Larry Jackson 873, Dan Bishop 836, Nick Foster 811, Jeff Prescott 770, Vern Anderson 715, Doug McCoun 644, Dave Byrd 570, Dennis Wilson 563, Felix DeLeon 476, Jerry Mostek 460, Joe Esperanca 435, Dave Alonzo 421, Bob Henrich 370, Roy Aitchison 352 and Cliff Reinosa 306.

There was a tight battle for the Figure 8 title all year but Naber pulled away in the end of season to outpoint Keldsen, Nott and fourth place Norris, 804.

Prep predictors hot, cold in WVAL, STAL

IN HIGH SCHOOL football games played last week in the West Valley and Santa Teresa Athletic Leagues, the prep predictors here at the paper sat on both ends of the thermometer — they were hot as a fireball and cold as ice!

The seers were red hot when it came to picking the winners in the STAL in games last week. We picked four winners in the four Santa Teresa games, and nailed one point spread right on the button (the 14 point spread in Live Oak's 14-0 win over Pioneer). The 4-0 week upped our season log to 18-8 in the STAL, three of those perfect picks.

But in the West Valley loop things didn't go quite as well. We were a cold 3-2 to drop our season record to a miserable 12-7 on the year.

And it looks like it could be more of the same this week with an extremely tough week for predictors in the WVAL.

In a non-league game Thursday, Del Mar will visit Monta Vista at Cupertino high school for a 7 p.m. game and the Dons will fall by seven.

On Friday there are four 3:30 p.m. games in the WVAL. Los Gatos will win by six at Blackford, Camden will win by three at Westmont, Prospect will win by six at Leigh and Branham will by six at home over Campbell.

In the STAL it could be another good week for the forecasters. In 3 p.m. games Leland will knock off a strong Live Oak team by six on the Charger field, Willow Glen will top visiting Gilroy by 14 and Lincoln will knock off visiting Pioneer by 14.

That night at San Jose City College at 7:30 p.m. Gunderson and San Jose will lock horns and the Bulldogs will win by four.

Blobaum duels for 1st. game mound win

Rainbows register 2nd sweep in young winter bat season

IT HAS BEEN either feast or famine for the Del Mar Rainbows so far this season in the Semi-Pro Winter League.

The Rainbows recorded their second doubleheader sweep of the young season last Sunday by dealing the San Jose Hawks 2-1 and 5-4 defeats at Del Mar high school to raise their league record to 4-2. Del Mar's only losses came when they were swept in a twinbill by Cupertino.

Jeff Blobaum, lowering his league earned run average to a microscopic 0.78, outdueled Ton Rubino, a varsity pitcher at Hayward State, for the opening game win.

Blobaum, who raised his record to 2-1, allowed just four hits and struck out four while yielding no earned runs.

Third sacker Tom Medica, shortstop Eric Richesin and rightfielder Dan McKay all made sparkling defensive plays behind Blobaum to preserve the victory.

Del Mar won the game in the bottom of the seventh when Gary Cunningham opened the frame with a single to left and rode home on sophomore Tom Bell's robust double up the right left-centerfield gap.

The Rainbows' first run had come in the fourth inning on a single and a stolen base by E. Richesin and a single by Medica.

In the nightcap, Del Mar snapped a 4-4 tie in the bottom of the sixth on walks to Medica, Cunningham and Blobaum followed by a hit batsmen, Karl Martin, forcing in the winning run.

Earlier in the game Bell had keyed a three run uprising with a two run single to left on a two strike pitch, erasing a 2-0 San Jose lead.

BELL WENT THE distance for the win, scattering seven hits and a pair of walks while striking out eight. Only one run was earned.

E. Richesin led DM at the plate in the win with a pair of hits in three at bats. Medica and centerfielder Mike Rusconi both stood out defensively.

The Rainbows were coming off of a 3-1 non-league win over Oak Grove last Wednesday at PAL Stadium. Medica's two run double with the bases loaded and McKay's two hits and run batted in keyed the triumph.

Bell got the win, allowing no runs and four hits in four innings on the mound.

Tonight (Wednesday) the Rainbows battle San Jose State University's junior varsity nine at PAL. Game time is 4 p.m.

Sunday the Rainbows are at Del Mar for a doubleheader with the league leading Salinas Reds. The first game will be played at 11 a.m. with the second clash set to start at 2 p.m.

Tar/Taste Theory Exploded.

Taste-science breakthrough gives low tar MERIT the flavor of cigarettes having 60% more tar.

By locating certain flavor-rich ingredients in cigarette smoke, ingredients that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar, researchers at Philip Morris have disproven the theory that cigarette flavor depends on the amount of tar that goes with it.

They've discovered how to pack flavor—unprecedented flavor—into a cigarette that delivers one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.'™ It's extra flavor, natural flavor, and only MERIT has it.

MERIT and MERIT MENTHOL

Tests Verify Taste

In taste tests involving thousands of cigarette smokers like yourself, MERIT was reported to deliver as much—or more—taste than current low tar leaders.

What's really startling is that these brands have up to 60% more tar than MERIT.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough.

Now smoke the cigarette.

MERIT. Incredible smoking satisfaction at only 9 mg. tar.

Pumpkin sales get the nod ...with two weeks to spare

IT TOOK SOME doing but Dennis Seymour is going to have his pumpkin patch in Campbell again this year after all. For awhile it appeared in doubt as the local flower shop owner had to counter objections from city officials and from property owners near his stand site at Hamilton ave. at Third street.

First, he'd put up a "flock shed" without a building permit. Seymour told councilmen he usually puts it up for his Christmas tree lot at that location anyway. But, last year he'd gotten a visit from county health department officials who said he'd have to put up some shelter for the pony Seymour has there as one of his selling tools (Pony rides are 25 cents with a purchase). So, he argued, by building the shed early he'd be taking care of two things at once. And the shed is used to flock trees when the yuletide selling season comes around.

NEXT A NEIGHBORING property owner complained that a combination outhouse and electric pole installation was causing problems for her tenants. "It smells," she declared.

Also, Chick Sale was placed on city property. Seymour opted to discontinue using that building and rent another outhouse to be placed at the far side of the vacant lot. The electric hookup remains under an agreement with the city that he carry an endorsement policy as part of his insurance program holding the city blameless.

By last Monday Seymour had taken care of those obstacles and was open for business.

And it's a good thing. As he said at the October 11 City Council session, "I'm running out of time."

"DANDY" was using the uncompleted flock shed on Hamilton ave. as a temporary corral last week. The construction of the shed was necessary, businessman Dennis Seymour said last week, because of earlier complaints that the pony has been left out in the elements. Sunny McHale, the pumpkin patch manager, is shown with the pony. Last week that flock shed shell still provided no shelter but skies were clear.

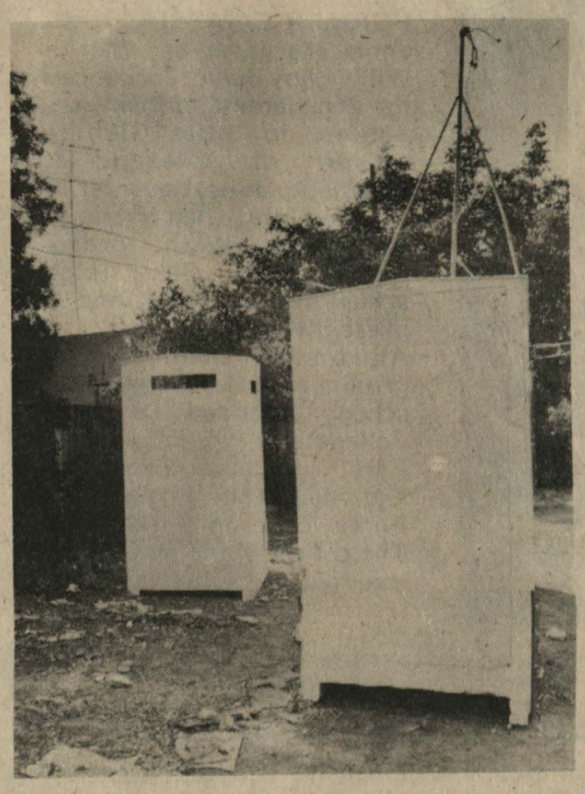
Sorting through some of the entries for the Campbell Creature Contest last week was Barbara Harison, Community Services Coordinator. By the deadline Monday a total of 93 drawings and descriptions had been sent in and the winner, and runner-ups will be announced Friday. Campbell's Creature will meet the Milpitas Monster on the Campbell library grounds Saturday, Oct. 30 at 12:30 p.m.

(Photography by Gordon Lew)



A SECOND area of concern about the temporary business on Hamilton ave. was with the outhouse located near neighboring residential property. The hang-up in moving it is that the little building comes with a pole needed for the electrical hook-up. The solution was to rent a second outhouse.

NEW FACES AT CITY HALL

Marie Skivofilakas is the new police dispatcher at City Hall and Mark Smith is the newly appointed police cadet on desk duty.

Mark got the expected reaction from Campbell officers on his first day.

"Okay. What's your real name?," they wanted to know.

MOIRA'S IN THE CHORUS

Campbellite Moira Harris is appearing in the chorus this weekend at the Oakridge Repertoire Theatre performance of "Kiss Me Kate."

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. this Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15 and 16 at the Church of Santa Teresa, 789 Calero ave.

IN TRAINING

Howard Drake, former police dispatcher for the city of Campbell, is completing his training at the police academy. He's due to graduate Oct. 23.

By the way, there were 154 applicants for the new police officer position Howard's training for.

DOUG ON THE KEYBOARD

Doug Foresythe of Campbell will be featured on the organ and electric piano this Sunday, Oct. 17, as a new rock band "The Circus" performs in Martin Murphy Historical Park in Sunnyvale.

The 2 to 5 p.m. concert is part of the fourth annual North Santa Clara County Walkathon sponsored by the March of Dimes.

Other band members are Doug Bales, Steve Dromensk and John Waley.

BRENDA'S MARCHING

Tooting her horn at Michigan State University these days is Brenda Baker of Campbell, one of the 250 member Spartan Marching Band at the university.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, 635 Chapman drive, Brenda is a Campbell high school graduate and is a freshman member of MSU's Honors College.

BRENDA BAKER at Michigan State.

Top spot goes to Murray

JANE MURRAY, R.N.

THE NEW director of nursing at Community Hospital, Los Gatos-Saratoga, holds a master's degree in nursing administration, likes to garden and prefers small community hospitals.

W. Jane Murray, R.N., a native of Ohio, was recently appointed to head up the nursing staff at the Pollard road facility. Having worked in hospitals from 535 to 200 beds, Murray says she prefers the latter. Small hospitals, "are more community-minded and responsive to community needs," she says.

Her prior experience includes the top nursing post in hospitals in Parma and Cleveland, Ohio, and assistant director of nursing in two other hospitals.

The former director, Fern Bolding, R.N. will remain on the staff as the infection control nurse.

Take note

Ink in his blood

Horse 'n' buggy trade pays off for Walter

NOT KEEPING UP with the times, printing-wise, was a boon to Campbell resident Walter Phillips.

When representatives of Great America started the search for a printer to operate the old press at the Moosejaw Trading Company, Walter was a natural. First, he looked the part and second; "I'm one of the few printers who still use old printing methods," he says.

And old methods is what he uses on the 1887 design letter press he operates weekends at the theme park turning out wanted posters one at a time.

The 65 year old printer became an apprentice printer at a small weekly newspaper in his home state of Pennsylvania at 16 but had ink in his blood long before that.

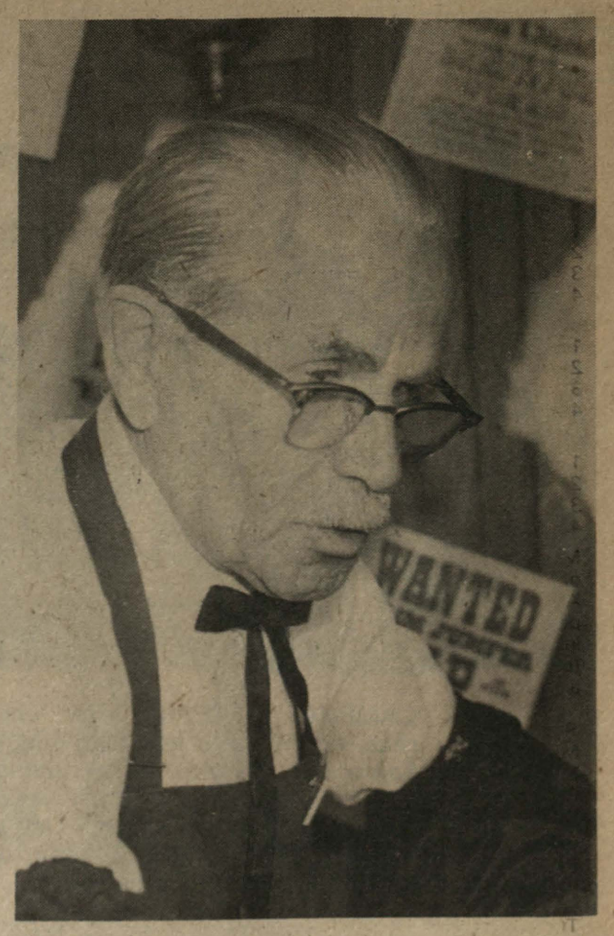
"FROM THE TIME I was a little kid on, I was always interested in printing," he explains," I got a little rubber printing set when I was 10 or 12. I used to print letters to my relatives on it."

Forty years after he started with that paper, he left to find a warmer climate. "When I left, I owned the place," he declared.

Nowadays he works during the week at a custom printing shop in Redwood City. Unlike most modern printers who use quick photographic methods of printing, Walter has stuck to the old letter-press process, assembling individual metal letters which are rubbed with ink and pressed onto paper.

And on weekends he dons his narrow string tie, dark apron and "sleeve guards," to keep ink from marking his shirt.

No, you just don't see many printers like that around anymore.



CAMPBELL'S Walter Phillips makes up "Wanted" posters for a living but it's all in fun. The 831 Gale drive man is part of the colorful scenery at the Yukon Territory section of Great America. And it's not just show either. For almost 50 years Walter has been a professional printer.

How to give till it helps

(even on a budget).

There are some who think we're only after money, when we say, "Give till it helps."

Money is indeed important when you're called on to help millions upon millions of people every year.

But money isn't everything.

3,114,743 people helped us last year by donating blood, for instance.

And there are hundreds of other jobs to be done.

Everything from rescuing older people from the sea of loneliness. To helping to feed and house families after a disaster.

Many people can't give us all the money they'd like to.

But there's hardly anybody who can't lend us a hand in some way.

Learn how you can give till it helps. Call your local American Red Cross chapter.

Today wouldn't be a bit too soon.

Red Cross. The Good Neighbor.

LOWER YOUR MONTHLY PAYMENTS

IT CAN RELIEVE A LOT OF PRESSURE AND MAKE LIFE MORE ENJOYABLE TOO!

By consolidating your monthly bills into ONE EASY monthly payment, you can . . .

- Very possibly cut your monthly payments in half.
- Get extra money for what ever you want.
- Have extra money left over every month for your family's enjoyment and security.

Many families, such as yours, have obtained sound financial security with an ALLSTATE EQUITY HOME LOAN. Our loans are based on your home equity, not on past or present credit situations. In many cases, our payments and interest are lower than those charged by banks, or finance companies.

So if you'd like $1,000 to $15,000, give us a call today! We normally can let you know how we can help, over the phone.

consumer's corner

Get it in writing or pay the price

My car insurance has gone up to the point where I'm paying $80 per month in premiums. Only last year I paid $220 for the same coverage for a 12 month period. The premiums are now exceeding my car payments. Can you talk to my insurance company for me? Whenever I call them we end up in a shouting match and nothing gets resolved. Enclosed is a copy of my latest policy.

Ms. Arlene J.
Mountain View

We checked with the insurance company and found that Ms. J. has five moving (speeding) violations and one major collision in the past seven months. It's a thundering wonder that the company hasn't dropped her althogether.

Her prior record is liberally sprinkled with moving violations — 15 in less than three years. It's surprising that the company accepted her in the first place.

Based on the operations manual of the insurance company and Ms. J.'s driving record, we think $80 per month is too low and some thought should be given to revocation of her license. It is circumstances such as these that call for the initiation of nationwide No Fault insurance so as to maintain premiums within a reasonable rate structure and eliminate the non-insured driver. This by virtue of legislation that would outlaw the uninsured motorist that we assume that Ms. J. will soon be.

We were quoted a price (verbally) of $42,500 for a home in which we were interested. The real estate agent assured us that this would be the price — firm! The following day when we had gone through the loan process and contacted the agent we were told that the price was $49,500. The agent agreed that her original quote was $42,500 but she quoted this figure to "make sure of our real interest" and further informed us that her low quote wasn't binding even though we had witnesses. Isn't a quote from a licensed real estate agent binding?

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mervyn
Cupertino

Our experts tell us that real estate law is another ball game and your agent's "quote" is not binding. This seems to be just another tactic in the great game of sell, sell, sell that quite often has ethics lower than a swaybacked badger's belly. It's well defined that in transactions involving real estate — everything must be in written form — verbal agreements mean nothing.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column is compiled for the SNPI newspapers by Slim Ingham. Consumers United is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping the consumer. Readers seeking help or membership information may write to Consumers United, P.O. Box 311, Palo Alto, 94302, phone 494-1858. For more immediate help with consumer-related complaints, call 245-7402, Monday through Friday, 3 to 7:30 p.m.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS
Bid No. 10-7677

Notice is hereby given that the Governing Board of the WEST VALLEY JOINT COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT, 14000 Fruitvale Avenue, Saratoga, California, hereby calls for sealed proposals for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services, including all utilities and related site work required for:

MOVING AND REMODELING RELOCATABLE CLASSROOM BUILDINGS

All proposals must be on a lump sum basis. Segregated proposals will not be accepted.

Bids will be received by the Governing Board at 14000 Fruitvale Avenue, Saratoga, California, on Oct. 27, 1976 at 2:00 P.M.

Proposals received after this time will be rejected and returned unopened.

Drawings and Specifications may be examined at the Architect's offices at:

Higgins & Root, Associates, 400 Blossom Hill Road, Los Gatos, California and Reid & Tarics Associates, 1019 Market Street, San Francisco, California.

Bonafide bidders may obtain Drawings and Specifications at the office of the Architects in accord with the Instructions to Bidders. Only one set of bidding documents will be released to each bidder. Extra sets may be secured for an additional deposit for each set requested.

The Contractor and all subcontractors under him must pay all laborers, workmen and mechanics on said work, or any part thereof, not less than the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and not less than the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for all legal holiday and overtime work, for work of a similar nature in the locality in which the work is performed, to wit: said College District, which per diem wages shall not be less than the stipulated rates contained in a schedule thereof which has been ascertained and determined by the Office of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara and by reference incorporated and specified herein and made a part hereof, and which said general prevailing rate of per diem wages as hereinabove referred to and adopted by each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute this Contract.

By submittal of a proposal, the bidder agrees that, if awarded the contract, the bidder has read the Affirmative Action Program, which is included as part of the contract documents, and will comply with all requirements stated therein.

Each Bid Proposal shall be accompanied by a Bid Bond, duly executed by the bidder as principal and corporation authorized to do business in the State of California as surety naming the West Valley Joint Community College District as obligee, or by a cashier's check or certified check, certified without qualification, drawn on a solvent bank of the State of California, in the amount of 10% of the total bid submitted and made payable to the West Valley Joint Community College District.

Should the party or parties to whom the contract should be awarded fail to enter into the contract after the award, and to file the required bonds, the proceeds of said certified or cashier's check or the amount paid by the bidder of his surety pursuant to the terms of said Bid Bond, either voluntarily or pursuant to the judgment rendered by the court in any action brought thereon, will be retained by said College District as agreed, and liquidated damages.

Time shall be the essence of this agreement. Should said work not be completed within the time stipulated on the Bid Proposal there will be deducted from the final payment the sum of One Hundred and No/100 ($100.00) Dollars per day as liquidated damages, but not as penalty, for each day's delay after the expiration of such period until the final physical completion of the work and its delivery to the Owner.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or any or all items or alternate, or propositions of such bids, or to waive all irregularities.

Intention to Vacate Portions of San Tomas Aquino Road

RESOLUTION NO. 5071

BEING A RESOLUTION OF INTENTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CAMPBELL, COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, TO VACATE CERTAIN PORTIONS OF THAT CERTAIN STREET KNOWN AS SAN TOMAS AQUINO ROAD, BEING A PUBLIC STREET WITHIN SAID CITY, AND SETTING A TIME AND PLACE OF THE HEARING THEREON AND GIVING NOTICE THEREOF.

WHEREAS, the Superintendent of Streets of the City of Campbell has submitted a report to this City Council stating that certain portions of San Tomas Aquino Road, hereinafter described, are unnecessary for present and/or prospective public street purposes; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Campbell finds and determines that said certain portions of San Tomas Aquino Road, a public street in the City of Campbell, maps and descriptions of which portions are on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Campbell, at City Hall, 75 North Central Avenue, Campbell, California, are not necessary for present or for prospective public street purposes; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Campbell finds and determines that it is in the best interest and for the betterment of the general welfare of the citizens of the City of Campbell and of the public at large that said portions of San Tomas Aquino Road be vacated; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Campbell does hereby elect to proceed in accordance with the provisions of Division 9, Part 3, Chapters 1, 2, and 3 of the Streets and Highways Code of the State of California;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CAMPBELL DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section One: That it is the intention of the City Council of the City of Campbell to vacate, abandon and close to public use those certain portions of San Tomas Aquino Road, being a public street in said City, maps and descriptions of which portions are on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Campbell, at City Hall, 75 North Central Avenue, Campbell, California, reference to which maps and descriptions are hereby made for further particulars.

Section Two: Notice is hereby given that on Monday the 25th day of October, 1976, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock p.m. of said day, in the City Council Chambers at the City Hall, at 75 North Central Avenue, Campbell, California, is hereby set as the time and the place for hearing all persons interested in or having objections to said proposed vacation.

Section Three: IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DIRECTED that a copy of this Resolution of Intention be forthwith published twice, once each week for two successive weeks, which latter publication shall be made not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing, in the Campbell Press, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the City of Campbell, and that Notices of Public Street Vacation be posted conspicuously along the lines of the street or part thereof proposed to be vacated at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing thereon. Such notices shall be posted not more than three hundred (300) feet apart, but at least three (3) such notices shall be posted for each portion. Such notices shall state the passage of the Resolution of Intention and announce the time and the place of the hearing on the proposed vacation.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 27th day of September, 1976, by the following vote:
AYES: Councilmen: Chamberlin, Hammer, Paul, Podgorsek, Doetsch
NOES: Councilmen: None
ABSENT: Councilmen: None

GETTING THE hang of the old backstroke last week was swimming marvel Rodney Fairchild, shown with his instructor Gina Ambrose. Right now, with winter approaching, the tyke will be taking a break in this thrice a week swim lessons.

(Photography by Gordon Lew)

Super swimmer

Rodney likes play trucks pedal cars . . . and water

IN MOST WAYS 27 month old Rodney is a typical youngster. He has his favorite foods and toys, including his pedal car which he insists on pushing with his feet rather than pedaling, and he's never still a minute.

Not so typical however, is his swimming prowess. After just 10 months of lessons Rodney has gone from a confirmed non-swimmer to his latest feat, 40 laps of the swimming pool without stopping.

"Actually, we don't know how many laps he could really do," says his grandmother Lucile Bittinger. And he's mastered the difficult butterfly stroke, diving from the side of the pool (although he prefers an energetic feet first approach) and last week began training for the backstroke.

RODNEY'S ALWAYS been fascinated by water, Mrs. Bittinger says, and since she and her husband Rich have a backyard swimming pool, she decided to teach the tot to swim when he was 6 months old.

"I was too softhearted," she explains. And after almost a year of work with her grandson she was ready to give up in desperation.

Instead, she signed Rodney up at the Water Babies Swim School in Campbell for a nine week session. But the end of that time there wasn't much progress, Mrs. Bittinger remembers. "I thought he'd never swim."

A friend prevailed on her not to give up but when the tot started his second nine week session, at 15 months, she wasn't too optimistic.

Then the sturdily-built youngster caught on and since then there's been no stopping him. Rodney gets instruction three times a week from Gina Ambrose and clamors for more "pool, pool."

At home it's strictly fun time in the family pool on Redoaks drive and Rodney looks forward to his daily shower like other two year olds look forward to dessert.

When we talked with Mrs. Bittinger last week Rodney was setting up a howl in the background. "It's time for his shower and he doesn't like waiting," she explained.

Rodney's water navigation is a heads up classic freestyle. (His breathing just came naturally), but no one knows if he can float.

"He doesn't stay still long enough in the water for us to find out," his proud grandmother laughed.

AN EXUBERANT swimmer, Rodney takes to the water with a mighty leap. The tot's remarkable swimming ability has prompted two professional swimming coaches to beat a path to the Bittinger home near Campbell. While all agree he's future Olympic material, his grandmother doesn't want to take the fun out of swimming for him. "We'll let him decide (about intensive training) when he's 6 or 7 if he's still interested," Mrs. Bittinger says.
